

US senators call for worldwide ban on destructive fishing subsidies

Published: 07 May, 2007

A BIPARTISAN group of 13 United States senators, led by Sen. Ted Stevens (R-Alaska), have introduced a resolution calling for the United States to pursue an international ban on government subsidies to the fishing sector that are supporting the overfishing of the world's oceans.