NEWS UPDATE

Man nabbed by police one day after picture appears on 'most-wanted' list

Vancouver (AP) - Ching Lo was in his early 20s when he was arrested Monday on a charge of first-degree murder and held without bail in Canada, police said.

Lo, 22, was arrested early Monday after police said he shot and killed a man in a parking lot in Vancouver, British Columbia.

He was arraigned Monday on charges of first-degree murder and was held without bail on a $500,000 bond.

Lo was living in the area at the time of the shooting, police said.

Fugitive kid nabbed after 30-year hunt

A boy, 16, who had been on the run for 30 years in Canada was arrested Monday in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The boy, identified as James Kirkman, had been on the run since 1982, after escaping from a youth detention center in Vancouver.

He was arrested Monday after police said he was spotted in a shopping mall.

He had been on the run for so long that he had no idea who he was or where he came from.

Fugitive kid nabbed after 30-year hunt

A boy, 16, who had been on the run for 30 years in Canada was arrested Monday in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The boy, identified as James Kirkman, had been on the run since 1982, after escaping from a youth detention center in Vancouver.

He was arrested Monday after police said he was spotted in a shopping mall.

He had been on the run for so long that he had no idea who he was or where he came from.

Fugitive kid nabbed after 30-year hunt

A boy, 16, who had been on the run for 30 years in Canada was arrested Monday in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The boy, identified as James Kirkman, had been on the run since 1982, after escaping from a youth detention center in Vancouver.

He was arrested Monday after police said he was spotted in a shopping mall.

He had been on the run for so long that he had no idea who he was or where he came from.

Fugitive kid nabbed after 30-year hunt

A boy, 16, who had been on the run for 30 years in Canada was arrested Monday in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The boy, identified as James Kirkman, had been on the run since 1982, after escaping from a youth detention center in Vancouver.

He was arrested Monday after police said he was spotted in a shopping mall.

He had been on the run for so long that he had no idea who he was or where he came from.